Conceived as a bold challenge to urban living, Pramur embarked on a journey to design a well-planned, cozy residential layout on the outskirts of Mysuru. Located at Naganahalli, this community demands attention due to the proximity to the 8 lane Bengaluru - Mysore expressway (approximately 400m away) as also to the proposed second railway station of Mysuru. Pramur Meadows is designed for people who love space and would like to be amidst mother nature (the calls of a variety of birdlife resonate through the air). Surrounded by tall trees, the plot is a reservoir of oxygen-rich air. This will only be enhanced by the fact that Pramur is going to be planting at least 100 more saplings along the way. With lots of greenery around, in addition to comfortable 9 x15m (30x50ft) plots, a few odd ones too have been planned to perfection. Well laid roads, service points to individual plots, well-manicured gardens and areas allocated specifically for parks are also salient features at Pramur Meadows. 24X7 water supply by a captive tube well, a network of supply lines and solar powered street lights, a state of the art STP and rain water harvesting system make this place sustainable. Come, be one with nature and discover a totally new meaning to community living at Pramur Meadows
